

María Estela Zavala, MAsc., P.Eng.

María Estela Zavala obtained her Mechanical Electrical Engineering degree at a Mexican University, a MAsc degree at the University of Toronto, and she spent 3 years at the University of Tokyo, Japan as a research and PhD student. She has worked as an Associate Professor in a Mexican University and as Power Systems engineer in Canadian consulting and utility companies. Presently she is with ATCO Electric as a Facilities Planning Engineer.

In her spare time, María Estela participates in her local Toastmasters club. She has recognized with the Advanced Communicator Bronze level. She forms part of the executive as VP Membership. In 2009, she received a Voluntary Service Award from APEGGA for her multiple years of volunteering in several committees and presently María Estela serves on the APEGGA Edmonton Branch Executive Committee.