Local Teacher Receives Award for Making School Cool

Calgary – Marco Filipetto, a teacher at St. Francis High School, will be the first of three Calgary teachers to be presented with a 2005 Teacher Award sponsored by The Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta (APEGGA). At the school's awards night, Filipetto will receive a cash prize of $1,000 to be used to promote math and science education in the school.

Location: St. Francis High School
877 Northmount Drive NW
Calgary AB
Date: Wednesday, June 1, 2005
Time: 7:00 p.m.

"Mr. Marco Filipetto transformed the students' dream teacher into reality," writes one student on the nomination form. "He is the model for the ideal teacher and role model for all students."

"Mr. Filipetto is a gift to our students, the education profession and to the teaching of mathematics," writes a colleague in support of the nomination. "Students love his classes and parents want their children in his classes."

The APEGGA Teacher Awards program celebrates math and science teachers in elementary, junior and senior high schools for the excellence they demonstrate in shaping the intellectual and creative development of students and for their outstanding efforts to Make School Cool.

"Each year APEGGA recognizes 14 Alberta teachers who have a profound and lasting impact on students," says Jeanne Keaschuk, APEGGA senior outreach coordinator. "This award program rewards exceptional teachers and helps them to further enhance the classroom experience."

Established in 1920, APEGGA is responsible for regulating the practice of engineering, geology and geophysics in the province of Alberta. The association's 42,000 individual and corporate members play a significant role in every segment of the economy, and their technical and management expertise ensure Alberta remains at the forefront of technological innovation.
