Local Teacher Receives Award for Making School Cool

Redwater – Fred Moody, a teacher at Redwater School, will be presented with a 2006 Teacher Award sponsored by The Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta (APEGGA). At a school awards program, Moody will receive a cash prize of $1,000 to be used to promote math and science education in the school.

Location: Redwater School
Redwater, AB
Date: Monday, June 12, 2006
Time: 2:15 p.m.

“My love of science began in my first science class with Mr. Moody,” writes one student on the nomination form. “He showed me that a teacher can really change your life,” writes another.

“Mr. Moody is a leader in our school and his expertise is invaluable,” writes a colleague in support of the nomination. “Students remember him as someone who went above and beyond to provide them with the best possible learning opportunity,” writes another colleague.

The APEGGA Teacher Awards program celebrates math and science teachers in elementary, junior and senior high schools for the excellence they demonstrate in shaping the intellectual and creative development of students and for their outstanding efforts to Make School Cool.

“Each year APEGGA recognizes 14 Alberta teachers who have a profound and lasting impact on students,” says Jeanne Keaschuk, APEGGA senior outreach coordinator. “This award program rewards exceptional teachers and helps them to further enhance the classroom experience.”

Established in 1920, APEGGA is responsible for regulating the practices of engineering, geology and geophysics in the province of Alberta. The association’s 44,000 members play a significant role in every segment of the economy, and their technical and management expertise ensure Alberta remains at the forefront of technological innovation.
